

DEPOSITION

Case of James G. Montgomery, No. 380,524

On this 17th day of March, 1885, at Jeannette, County of Decatur,
 State of Penn., before me, F. W. Gallia, a Special Examiner of the Pension Office, personally appeared Jefferson P. Barnett, who, being by me first duly sworn to answer truly all interrogatories propounded to him during this Special Examination of aforesaid pension claim, deposes and says:

My name is Jefferson P. Barnett. I am forty years of age. I live near Jeannette Penn. I am a farmer.

Q Were you in the Union army during the late war.

A Yes sir, I was in Co. G, 2nd Penn. Inf.
 Infantry.

Q While in that Regiment did you know James G. Montgomery of the same Co and Regiment.

A Yes sir he was in our company.

Q Do you know anything concerning his alleged wounding near Gettysburg in 1864.

A I don't remember a thing about it. I have tried to refresh my recollection but cannot.
 I know he was with the company but I remember nothing about the matter of his shooting or after his return to the company.

Q Have you any interest in this claim or in its prosecution

A No sir.

Q Have you any bias or prejudice for or against the claimant.

A No sir.

Q Are you any kin of his.

A None.

Pefferson, J. Burnett
Deponent.

Sworn to and subscribed before me this 17th day of March 1885, and I certify that the contents were fully made known to deponent before signing.

Fredric W. Gallault
Special Examiner.
